PRESERVING PRECIOUS MOMENTS

CARPINTERIA, CA. (December 29, 1998). . . Life can be described as a tapestry of memories. Photo albums, scrapbooks and family trees are lovingly created to pass down from generation to generation. Capturing and preserving family history is key to building family ties. In the tradition of collecting life's treasured memories, THE BEVERLY CLARK COLLECTION, well-known for cutting-edge innovation in the bridal accessories arena, introduces its new Wedding Certificate Holder.

"The Wedding Certificate Holder is a fashionable and stylish way to preserve one of the most sacred and cherished documents in one's life," explains Beverly Clark, distinguished author and wedding authority. "The beautifully engraved cylinder safely protects this treasured record for years to come."

Richly embellished with blooming roses and Victorian scrollwork, the silver-plated cylinder reaches far beyond the duty of protecting your certificate from the elements. Carefully rolled and inserted into the holder, the wedding certificate is kept safe while it rests in elegant display. The Wedding Certificate Holder measures 8¾" in length and has a suggested retail price of $ 38.50.

Established in 1987 when it first published Beverly Clark's Planning a Wedding To Remember, still America's #1 best-selling wedding guidebook, THE BEVERLY CLARK COLLECTION continues to be the trend-setter for luxurious bridal accessories. Its extensive product line, with more than 600 accessories, covers everything from guestbooks and ringbearer pillows, to champagne flutes, cake tops, knives and servers, to attendant gifts, photo albums, as well as a broad range of informative guide- and gift-books.
