

LUCE

M14092

PRESS CLIPPINGS

Marble & Granite Showroom Opens

Atlanta-Westchester Marble & Granite, a subsidiary of Walker Zanger and a supplier of handcrafted stone and lapidary, has opened its first showroom and regional office here. The showroom includes 4,000 sq. ft. of more than 40 installed stone, tile and mosaic vignettes, 10,000 sq. ft. of office and conference area. The outdoor stone and slab display and storage area is 10,000 sq. ft. and features more than 150 types of granite, marble, limestone and onyx. Also featured at the site is a 5,000 sq. ft. indoor warehouse displaying more than 80 full slabs of different natural surface materials.

Several illuminated panels of natural onyx are displayed in the entryway and display windows. Consumers can view various uses of the Westchester collections through demonstrative vignettes of working baths and kitchens. The showroom is open to both the trade and the public.

Jeff Lupica, vice president of Westchester Marble & Granite, and Tom Thyne, showroom designer, worked with Ciccone Simone of Toronto, Ontario, Canada, to design the new facility. George Duncan will serve as the showroom's manager.

More than 150 types of stone are on display at Westchester Marble and Granite's new showroom.