Cavendish Grey: New patterns utilizing reclaimed and recut antique terra-cotta include Basketweave. 150 East 58th Street, New York, NY 10155. circle 331

Artistic Tile: Casa Domani's handsome faux-whip-stitched leather tiles put fashion at your feet. But no need to tread lightly: The tiles just get better with age, acquiring a rich patina. 79 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10003. circle 332

Walker Zanger: A shining example of chic, Metalismo stainless-steel mosaic tiles are available in squares, mini bricks, ovals, dots, rhomboids, and herringbone and basket-weave patterns. 13190 Telfair Avenue, Sylmar, CA 91342. circle 333

Ann Sacks: Don't be fooled by Perlot's pretty pastel palette—this hard maple plank is built to last. Its multilayered construction dramatically reduces expansion and contraction. Plus, Perlot can be installed above, at, or below grade as well as over any subfloor, including concrete. 8120 NE 33rd Drive, Portland, OR 97211; www.annsacks.com. circle 334
